Folder Accessories – Dividers

Jeter File Dividers

Jeter file dividers separate the internal contents of file folders. Use of these dividers allows you to keep key information segregated for convenient access as files grow. You may select dividers that accept an extra fastener, which allows a section of materials to be removed without disrupting other documents within the folder.

The dividers listed have embossed position marks around their parameters to receive Jeter's standard indexing labels to create actual tabs.

Jeter File Dividers

Jeter outguides are a great way to control documents when removed from the file. A charge-out form on the outguide names the borrower of the record and notes the date the record left the file area. The outguide clearly indicates where to return file folders that have been removed from the system, so refiling is both fast and accurate, saving valuable time.

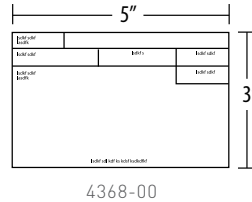

Most Jeter out-guide folders contain a pocket to hold documents. Once a file folder is returned to the system, the documents can be transferred directly into the permanent folder. Jeter outguide folders are available in a variety of colors. These colors can be used to signify certain weeks of the month, specific departments or whatever meets your organization's needs.

Outguides – Charge-Out

Charge-out Control of Files

Keeping track of borrowed file folders can prevent lost files and lost time. Vinyl Charge-out Guides use a Charge-out Slip to list the name of the borrower, date the file was removed and the follow-up date. The Vinyl Charge-out Guide also has an additional pocket for filing any material which may come in while the borrowed file is out. The Charge-out Paper Folder also accommodates incoming materials while the folder is out and it is printed to record the name of the borrower and the date the file was removed. Charge-out Cards are also printed to record the pertinent information.
